Dear Ms. Sheppard:

Our firm represents B & W Disposal, Inc., an Illinois corporation, with its principal offices in Catlin, Illinois.

Subsequent to receipt by our client of your correspondence of December 2, 2011, I spoke via telephone with Nicole Wood-Chi, associate regional counsel. During that telephone conversation, I advised Ms. Wood-Chi that my client never, since its incorporation in February 2001, disposed of, arranged for disposal of, nor transported any materials to the Gary Development Landfill. I further advised Ms. Wood-Chi that B & W Disposal, Inc. has never had any relationship with B-W Disposal Service, Inc., another Illinois corporation, which apparently has transported materials to the subject site.

During that conversation, Ms. Wood-Chi advised me to simply have my client make that affirmative statement rather than responding to each of the information requests and, accordingly, enclosed is the response of B & W Disposal, Inc., as suggested by Ms. Wood-Chi.

In the event that this limited response does not meet with your satisfaction, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Sincerely,

Thomas M. O'Shaughnessy

RECEIVED DEC 19 2011 Spd

Mrs. Jaffess,

My name is Scott Post. My father is Harold Post, the former owner of B&W Disposal, Inc. My father is 76 years old, and recovering from recent open heart surgery. I will attempt to answer any questions that you may have about B&W.

B&W Disposal, Inc. was sold to Allied Waste Industries in June of 1992. All records up to that date were transferred to Allied Waste at the time of sale.

B&W was a family owned and operated trash hauling company operating in Chicago. We removed municipal solid waste from businesses like restaurants and apartment buildings throughout the south side of Chicago.

At no time did B&W handle hazardous waste. Nor did we "arrange" for the disposal of hazardous waste. Nor did we transport hazardous waste to Gary Landfill (or anywhere else for that matter) We were not even permitted or licensed to do so. We removed Municipal Solid Waste (MSW) only.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me. I can be reached at 773-331-8106

Below I will type an abbreviated version of the required statement you have asked for in your letter. I cannot type the majority of it as it does not apply.

I certify under the penalty of law that this document was written by myself and further certify that I have disclosed everything to the best of my ability. There are no records in our possession relating to hazardous waste because we have never been involved in such activity.

Signed,

Scott Post
